REGULAR REPUBLICAN

New Hanover County Ticket.

For Clerk of the Superior Court, STACEY VANAMRINGE.

For Sheriff, STEPHEN H. MANNING.

For Register of Deeds, JOSEPH E. SAMPSON.

For County Treasurer, OWEN BUREY.

For Coroner, EDWARD D. HEWLETT.

For Surveyor, LEMUEL D. CHERRY.

LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

For Senator,

For House of Representatives, WILLIAM H. WADDELL, EUSTACE E. GREENE.

For Constable—Wilmington Township, ROBERT SWEAT.

LET HIM ANSWER.

The Raleigh Times says: "Why has not John Calo Scarborough, the Democratic Superintendent of Public Instruction, made public his annual report, as is required by law? Has he been ordered by the bosses to withhold it? Does it contain information damaging to the Democratic administration? Is there a leak in the Treasury? Have the poor children of the state been robbed of a part of the money intended for their tuition? Are the school taxes squandered in salaries for useless offices to be filled by Bourbon puppets?"

Turn on the light! There is "hair on the pillow," and the peep will not be satisfied until a full exposure of affairs relating to public schools is made.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATING CONVENTION.

Rockingham, N. C., Aug. 12, '82. The Republican Convention for Rockingham on Saturday, September 16th, 1882, for the purpose of nominating County officers and a member of the Legislature, to be voted for at the next election.

The representation to said convention, in accordance with the plan of organization, shall consist of three delegates and three alternates from each precinct and no more. The chairman of the several townships will call conventions in their respective townships and appoint delegates.

N. W. HARRLEE, Chairman, N. C. Rep. Ex. Com.

EVERYTHING IS HARMONIOUS IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

The Republican Convention which assembled at Edenton on Thursday, the 18th inst., nominated Walter F. Pool, Esq., as a candidate for Congress from the First District. This nomination was the result of a compromise between the friends of John B. Reapass and Miles commander, Esq., who had prominently brought their names forward as candidates. The nomination of Mr. Pool is considered a strong one, and is not only acquiesced in but cordially endorsed by all who desire complete harmony and the success of our cause.

GEN. H. H. MANNING.

Our worthy sheriff, Gen. H. H. Manning, who has been in exceedingly bad health for months past, is now in Pennsylvania, in a letter to the Editor, he says he thinks he has at last struck the place where he will be entirely restored to his former health and vigor. We congratulate the General on his good prospect and the people of this city and county on the fact that General Manning will continue to be their able efficient sheriff.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. Mott has been very sick, but rejoice in the fact that he is improving.

Hon. O. H. Dockery addressed an interesting address at Salisbury yesterday and Goldsboro the day before. He is being largely and enthusiastically crowded to him by his able speeches.

WHITE MEN, READ.

WHAT THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN MEANS.

We are now at the beginning of a very important campaign in North Carolina. On one side is the Bourbon aristocratic Democracy with all the intolerance, proscription, aristocratic exclusiveness and opposition to free schools and the rights of poor white men that that party means and has ever maintained. Else show us why when public lands were donated by the State they were set aside for the University when no poor man's sons are able to go in preference to being donated to the free public schools that bring education to the home and fireside of every poor man. Else why is it that the present system of county government and the gerrymandering tendencies of all Democratic Legislatures, and towards perpetuating the power and influence of certain families who under a past and dead order of things were the best families so-called.

Else why is it that the history of North Carolina does not show one son of a poor white man who has ever been recommended for appointment to either Annapolis or West Point? Does not show scarcely one instance of a poor man's son who has been able, no matter what his abilities and capacity may be to rise above the common level assigned to all "white trash" by the Bourbon Democracy. What few and insolent instances there have been were only when great courage and endurance were isolated to great abilities, and even those are the few, and the terrible few who have hurried the general desolate wreck that has overcome all the young, noble and capable sons of poor white men whose lonely lives of toil and groaning heartbreakings at the want of appreciation has been succeeded by sad migration to other and fairer skies or else more lonely graves.

When melancholy claimed them for her own, and what few have gone away have reaped in other lands the rewards denied them at home by Bourbon aristocratic exclusiveness, and other States have been the beneficiaries of the talents and abilities of many a native North Carolinian that the "Old North State" ought and could have had.

How many years would it be before this intolerance and proscription would allow a Garfield to come to the front or any other of the long line of Presidents whose proud names are on the wall and their elevation to no family or social influence, but who raised themselves from the lonely obscurity of honest poverty by the fervor of their energies and abilities aided by the moral encouragement of a tolerant, liberal and generous people? But on the other hand, how many a time and oft the lustre of the radiant abilities of able young men have been denied and smothered by the deed of oppression and opposition left to lower all but the scions of fan efforts and an intolerant aristocracy.

This is the reason why North Carolina has been so backward in the development of its almost inexhaustible resources and why she is laughed and sneered at as the Rip Van Winkle of the original confederation, and this is why she is fastened with the discreditable stigma of showing a lower rate of education than any State in the Union, notwithstanding the fact that she was a sovereign State for decades of years before some of the Western States, who far outstrip her, notwithstanding their comparative youth, in education and all the evidence of enterprise and prosperity.

Else why is it that in the rural districts now white men who choose to exercise the rights of freemen and vote as they please, are afraid to speak of their intention above a whisper, still suffering from the domination of a few whites, so-called aristocrats, who exercise their lordly power to elevate their relatives to positions of honor and profit at the expense of the poor white man.

And now comes the Liberal party. A large number of Democrats who tired of this ostracism and terrorism, meet together and nominate a ticket which is cordially endorsed by the Republican party and put forward in the interests of free speech and the liberty of opinion, "a free ballot and a fair count" and a government through of and by the people, and not by a few self-constituted "bosses."

They say to the Bourbons you have discouraged free education of the masses, given the land that should belong to them to the University when only the sons of rich men are able to go.

You have centralized the local government; and the in the election machinery of the State in the hands of a few at Bourbon headquarters.

You have wiped out majorities you could not control by gerrymandering. You have attempted by a Legislature largely Democratic, aided by the influence of your Bourbon Governor, to foster on the State a liberty-organizing prohibition law.

After trying to make use of the colored man to aid you in this, at the very next campaign you raise the cry of color line and seek to bring race prejudice to aid you to perpetuate your power.

You seek to array race against race, thereby chilling the good feelings of both, paralyzing the industries of the State and making the natural home of the poor colored man a land of terror to him.

You have estranged and looked over the poor white voters until they are afraid to exercise the rights of freemen.

These and many new things you have done, and the Liberal party backed by the Republican party says to you thus far shall you go and no farther.

White men, colored men, liberty loving freemen, look upon the picture. Can there be any doubt which you should choose. You who wish to live here in peace and harmony, who wish to accord to all their rights under the law and claim the same for yourselves, go forward and exert yourselves that North Carolina may learn the intolerance and darkness of the past and turn her face to the morning sun again.

THE MILITARY REGIME.

The Raleigh News and Observer, the Bourbon official organ in this State, advises the organization of the Bourbon party on a military basis. Chairmen of township committees to be captains; chairmen of county committees to be "kornels," and so on up to full General. Now this is, to say the least, significant. It simply means that a semi-military system of coercion is to be adopted. It does not mention the nature of the arms to be used, but from past experience, we can supply that omission. These soldier-politicians are to "ride" their districts, we presume, and will no doubt do it in true Ku-Klux style, and do regular military patrol duty throughout the country.

Is this necessary, Mr. Observer? If so, you must begin to despair of success. The people are to be terrified into voting, when they cannot be induced to do so by other means. Go slow, gentlemen! The people are getting tired of being bully-rugged and will not much longer submit to it.

There are no principles involved in the campaign, it is only a question of men. You accuse the Liberals of selling out, and at the same time support a man for Supreme Court Judge who bolted your ticket and obtained Republican aid to beat your candidate. Be consistent, or nothing, gentlemen.

THE BOUQUET'S NEW INDUSTRY.

We clip from the New York Herald, of the 16th inst., the following: "At the close of the war cotton seed was regarded as of little or no value, except for planting, and, consequently, almost the entire product was thrown away. To-day, according to the statements made in yesterday's Herald by Tariff Commissioner, Keener, of Louisiana, it is valued at about one-third of the cotton crop. The annual product of seed is now about two and a half million tons over and above what is needed for planting purposes, and the price has reached from fifteen to twenty dollars a ton. The value of the annual yield when made in oil cake and other products is estimated at from seventy-five to a hundred million dollars. This is a very substantial source of wealth and material prosperity to the South, and one whose importance is no longer unappreciated by southern capitalists. The number of mills in operation and in progress of construction for converting cotton seed into its valuable products is reported at from sixty-five to seventy, most of which have been started in the past few years, and as the business is found to be highly profitable the establishment is likely to multiply with considerable rapidity. These are results over which the North as well as the South has reason to rejoice."

Col. Cook chairman Liberal party sent a challenge to chairman Cook of the Democratic party for Col. Dockery the Liberal Candidate to meet Col. Bennett the Bourbon Democrat Candidate. But this challenge was refused; Bennett and his committee were afraid of Dockery. And they cowardly hid back down; this statement is correct and the Democratic papers that have any regard for the truth will not deny it.

We are sorry with Mr. W. Taylor of Brunswick in his last day's election.

If "Daniel," the Review correspondent really seeks an answer to the queries made in his communication of last week he can find it in the unqualified endorsement of Mr. Darby's official acts by the two boards of Aldermen whose Attorney he has been.

As regards the low ding at his ability that is established to the entire satisfaction of "Daniel's" mental superiority and vouched for by one of the distinguished Gentlemen who "Daniel" is pleased to use as an illustration.

If Mr. Darby only does half as well on the Bench as he has at the Bar, he will compare very favorably with some of our present much praised Superior Court Judges, that is if judged by the Supreme Court decisions on their appealed cases.

It is late, very late in the day for Democrats to endeavor to belittle Mr. Darby's ability, and they will find it up hill work. The masses are with Mr. Darby, and he is satisfied with their support and encouragement and they with his fitness for the place to which they are going to elect him in November.

This attack is in keeping with the Bourbon plan of endeavoring to be smothered every one who has the manliness to have opinions of their own, and not be bowed. Clingman, Leach, Chishill, Darby, Folk and all the independent candidates have been similarly treated, but they can stand it.

The Liberal Republican candidate for Congress in this district will not commence the canvass of the district before the first of October owing to the fact the people of the district are busy looking after their crops, and he does not desire to take them away from their labor at this time.

Dr. Fairfax Irving, fair, able, efficient and exceedingly popular Surgeon in charge of the U. S. Marine hospital of this city, is on a visit to his family and friends in Chicago, Ill. Dr. Irving is one of the very best Physicians in the U. S. service, and we hope the Department will be able to keep him.

We understand that Col. A. M. Waddell has completed his arrangements to establish at Charlotte a daily paper to be called the Journal. We hope Col. Waddell will meet with that success in his new venture that we feel is warranted by his peculiar talent in the field of literature.

Hon. D. L. Russell is canvassing the west in behalf of the Liberal party. He is one of the best, if not the ablest speaker in the state on either side.

We were pleased to meet our old friend, Mr. Fred Smith in our city last week. He Mills & Walker, Newton, N. C. We wish him a prosperous trip.

Just suppose from banking houses and a free party were established at Hilton, don't you know it would give our city a boom?

Mr. S. P. Collier succeeds Mr. John G. James as Assistant Freight Agent of the W. C. & A. R. R. in this city.

Capt. Fred Small's store and stock of goods were destroyed by fire Thursday morning about one o'clock. A partial insurance on stock, but none on the building.

We are sorry to hear that Capt. Lee Hand has resigned his position as Conductor on the C. C. & R. R.

Joe E. Sampson, our Register of Deeds, received Wednesday about two hundred Bank books and checks for the dividends from the Freedman's Bank. He is ready to turn over the books and the money to the proper parties. This is the 4th dividend that Mr. Sampson has secured and paid out in this way, and he deserves thanks and praise for the interest he has manifested in this matter.

The little rice bird has arrived, and we hope they will be cheap enough to allow a poor fellow a vanity from "milk-junk."

Mr. Thomas Davis one of the school committee of Federal Point Township informs us that the school arrangements in his district are in very good condition. They have recently purchased new maps, new charts, new globes, new books, notions, &c., and a good teacher is engaged to open the public school on the first day of October. We mention this with pride and pleasure.

As we understand the charter of the Yacht Club, the best holding the flag for over 12 months is entitled to it for all time. Hence the little Queen of Greenville cannot be robbed of her soft and juicy won, and long were tumult and their clamor.

W. G. Johnson, Esq., writes a glowing account of things down at Kendall, Mr. Paul Kilduff's new plantation in Brunswick county. We hope Mr. Johnson will continue to keep us posted.

Senator W. E. Fridge, of Bladen, was in our city a few days ago, and Mr. H. R. Keweenaw, both looking well.

slum of the old Bourbons cannot touch him.

Mr. Darby has never sought office and his worth and status for the position alone induced the Liberals to nominate him.

The Judicial ermine never fell on a better man, and the Liberals and Republicans of the North State are determined by thirty thousand majority that he shall wear it.

WILSON CARR, BLADEY CO.

Aug. 16th, 1882.

To the Republicans of Bladen county: I hereby announced myself a candidate for the Republican nomination to the House of Representatives. If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to do my full duty by my county and my party. My claims are in the hands of the Convention when it meets, if nominated, I shall canvass the county for the ticket, whether nominated or not, I shall do all I can for the full Republican ticket of the State, Congressional and County.

CITY ITEMS.

Quite a large excursion arrived in the city Wednesday from along the C. C. & R. R.

One of the largest oaks ever caught in this city was hauled in by a little colored chap at Market Dock Tuesday evening. It measures six inches between the eyes and was two feet long.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Robert Kennedy, the foreman and business manager of this paper, is getting better. Mr. K. has been sick—quite sick—for about four weeks. We long to hear his voice soon again in the sanctum.

Two colored women had a lively scrimmage way out on Mulberry street last Wednesday. Tearing and scratching was the programme.

Messrs. Shrier Bros & Dryden have rented store No. 45 Market Street, where they propose opening a grand bazaar about the middle of September. They will employ from twenty-five to thirty lady clerks and from ten to fifteen male clerks.

A jump of matted silver coin weighing about fifteen ounces was picked up on the streets in the town of Magnolia one day last week.

The Black-fish excursion which was postponed on account of rough weather, will take place Tuesday next.

Mr. John G. James, for many years, Assistant Freight Agent of the W. C. & A. R. R. in this city, has been appointed Freight Agent of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R. with headquarters at Richmond.

We were pleased to meet our old friend, Mr. Fred Smith in our city last week. He Mills & Walker, Newton, N. C. We wish him a prosperous trip.

Just suppose from banking houses and a free party were established at Hilton, don't you know it would give our city a boom?

Mr. S. P. Collier succeeds Mr. John G. James as Assistant Freight Agent of the W. C. & A. R. R. in this city.

The New York Snow and Ice Brokers—S. H. BARRETT & Co.'s New United Rail Road Store—This new set as well as most colossal of all amusement enterprises will positively exhibit at Wilmington on Monday, Sept. 11th.

It is the best advertised show that has ever been announced here. Not only are its bright and costly pictorial displays on every side, for miles and miles around, and its illustrated newspaper and programmes scattered like snowflakes, but there is a solid emphasis in its manner of presenting its claims which commands attention and begets confidence. It is conspicuous for not indulging in the stale, dishonest "aggregation," "alliance," "combination" and "twelve shows-in-one" clap-net, which has always proved a delusion and a snare and involves such preposterous claims as to utterly discredit itself with all except the greenest fools. On the contrary, it assumes only to be one new and great show, which is the best of reasons for believing it to be so. Neither does it resort to manufactured names and purposely mixed and vague generalities and figures, in order to convey the swindling impression that it has rare attractions, which, in fact, have no honest existence.

Its attractions are multifarious as well as novel, and it is a matter of surprise how many strictly new features can be crowded in a single exhibition. Zebras, broken to perform incredible feats, hurdle leaping reindeer, giraffes, harnessed to Roman racing chariots, Harriman's steam air ship in operation, a man-sized riding cynocephalus, elk harnessed tandem, ten funny clowns in simultaneous rivalry, high and long-distance double somersault leapers, peacocks exploits in the gymnasium, extraordinarily trained thoroughbred horses, comical school of monkey comedians, monster living White Nile Hippopotamus, extraordinary feats of herculean strength, deeds of masculine and feminine intrepidity, and, in fact, so great an array of novelties and surprises that it would transcend the limits of a newspaper notice to give them even the briefest mention. The street parade is commensurate in magnitude and grandeur with the exhibition, and introduces among other attractions, thirty Arabian camels, decorated in the richest and most costly trappings and mounted by native Mahomedans.

Mr. John Nutt, of Bladen county, a nephew of the late Hon Henry Nutt, of this city, has declared in favor of the Liberman of talent and reputation, and will add considerable to Liberal success in the state.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, AUG. 20, 1882.

The Newbernian, one of the ablest conducted Democratic papers in the State says:

"Will the people of the Third Congressional District endorse a platform which says we wish to kill the culture of rice and peanuts, if they are ready for that suicidal policy, let them vote for Wharton Green. If they wish to see the very industries of all the Cape Fear paralyzed, if they wish to see poverty and gaunt-eyed hunger stalk where is now content and plenty, let them vote for Wharton Green. But per contra, if the wish to see a smiling land, scattering with a bounty that even shames generosity, come brightly and merry-dancing over the land, with an apron-full of flowers, dispensing gifts, then forget your misconceived and ill-forgotten prejudices; welcome the smiling maid and register your vote for free thought and an expression of an honest opinion.

Vote for W. P. Canaday for Congress.

Mr. Canaday wishes that your rice may bring you in dollars and cents—$1 per bushel. Mr. Wharton Green wishes to give you for rice 88 cents per bushel. Mr. Canaday wishes that your peanuts may bring $1 per bushel. Mr. Green says you must take out a precarious livelihood by obtaining 50 cents per bushel for your peanuts.

Are the sensible people of North Carolina going under the deceitful guise of a name—to allow themselves to be pulled here and there? As an old-timer friend, as a Democrat, who has made more sacrifices for the party than any other Democrat (?) in Craven county ever dared or even dreamed of; as a Democrat, true and tried, unflinching and unwavering; as a Democrat from principle, never expecting or receiving reward, we ask you to stop and think. Be not swayed by a name; rise above your surroundings and prejudices, give to your marshhood and integrity a voice. Be men on the seventh day of next November and above all be freemen."

WHITECREEK, N. C.,
Aug. 16th, 1882.

Mr. Editor—

The Democratic Convention which recently met at Warsaw selected as their candidate for Congress a gentleman of whose name and existence the people of Bladen county were profoundly ignorant. I do not believe that Col. Green was personally acquainted with one dozen men in Bladen when he received the nomination. Upon what ground was his nomination based? Was there no man in the District capable besides him?

Did the Democratic party owe nothing to Dan Hugh McLean or George Rose?

What crime had Shackelford committed that merited political death? Where was the gallant Waddell who unfurled the Democratic banner in 187 and carried it to victory after Judge Bennett had declined that honor?

In this county the contest was between Shackelford and Waddell, the former had a majority of four or five delegates, and Mr. Waddell men understood that Shackelford was to receive the vote of Bladen, but I am informed that he did not. The delegates espousing the cause of another gentleman, The people of Bladen uncontrolled by political wire workers were for Waddell. They recognized in him a fearless and capable advocate of the people's rights. He knew what our necessities demanded, and knew how to supply them. The business interest of the most of the counties in this District center in Wilmington. It is of practical importance to us to have the harbor improved to the end that Wilmington may be benefited, for as she prospers so will the people in the county, who produced the material which she ships, prosper.

I have recently talked with many old Whigs who have for a long time felt restive in the Democratic ranks. And we have decided that we will no longer be the dupes of a party who practice political frauds, and as we believe our interests will be best served by that course, we support William P. Canaday for Congress.

We do not fear to trust him for he is honest and capable, and as evidence of it, he has served as Collector of the Port of Wilmington for a long time with satisfaction to the business men of the city.

O. W. WHEAT.

Mr. A. V. Howell, the Steward of the Republican party of Federal county, was in our city the past week. He is one of the very best and ablest workers in Eastern Carolina. May he continue to work.

News from Fair Bluff sent us by Geo. F. Palmer is very good. Mr. Palmer is a splendid worker and a reliable man. We hope he will keep up his work and do well in his business undertakings. Write us again, Mr. P.

Mr. R. H. LYONS.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. R. H. Lyons, of Elizabethtown, Bladen county, in our city on Friday last. He is one of the ablest young lawyers in the east, and has been exceedingly successful in his profession. We congratulate the Liberal party on the fact that so able and worthy a gentleman as Mr. Lyons has declared in their favor. Mr. Lyons has been a life-long Democrat, but says he cannot follow blindly the Bourbon party longer. We publish a letter in another column, which we commend to our readers.

We understand that Hon. K. K. Councill and J. T. Councill, both of Bladen, and among the largest planters in that county, have declared in favor of the Liberal party. With such men as the Councils and Lyons of Bladen, and men of equal character and standing in other counties, the success of the Liberal party is assured.

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. C.

Mr. Editor: About a month ago, you informed in the Post, that you had been informed that it was my intention to cooperate with the Liberal party in North Carolina, and aid in the election of the candidates selected by that party.

This statement has caused many of my friends in this county to interview me for the purpose of learning my political status; and to all who have enquired, I have plainly and definitely replied, and I believe that I am fully understood by those who have felt sufficient interest in the matter, to converse with me about it.

But as I have very many friends in Bladen, who have not had an opportunity of talking with me and inasmuch as I have heard that I have been misrepresented to some of them, and as there is nothing which I desire to conceal, I propose to make this statement for their information.

In this county there has been, for many years, two forces in the Democratic party, who have contended with each other for the right to govern.

One of these forces numbered under its banner the Bourbon aristocracy and machine politicians; and though numerically weaker, have succeeded, by the use of improper means, in defeating the other force, which was composed of the PEOPLE, who believed that the principles of common honesty and fair dealing practiced in other business transactions ought to obtain in political matters. I have acted with the latter class; and when I have seen that the will of the People was defeated, that candidates not of their choice were selected, and by means which could not be defended by fair minded men, I have dared to do what I conceived to be right. I have refused in common with some of the best people of my county to support them. And for these acts of treason against the Bourbon Democracy, they have solemnly declared that we should be denied the right to participate in Democratic councils, but demand that we yield obedience to the command of the Bosses. Protection and allegiance are reciprocal terms. When the protection is withdrawn the obligation to the loyal is canceled.

Without one particle of regret I sever my connection with the Bourbon Democracy. To remain longer in their ranks and submit to insult, and witness daily exhibitions of violations of the plainest teachings of Democratic principles, would be humiliating to me. My self-respect demands this course. I do not desire to belong to a party who refuse to tolerate freedom of thought, the right to entertain and express an opinion, and exercise the prerogative of an American citizen, but who can defend proscriptive and class legislation and view with complacency and satisfaction the results wrought by the use of tissue ballots and other election frauds.

I hail with delight the birth in North Carolina of a party whose distinguishing principles are Home Rule, Restoration of power to the people, where it justly belongs. Toleration of the right of all claims of people to think, speak and act as free American citizens.

I confidently expect a victory for the people in November next.

R. H. LYONS.

CARTHAGE, MOORE CO. N. C.

Aug. 16th, 1882.
Dear Post: Allow me space in your valuable columns to make known to the good Republicans and Liberals of North Carolina, what a glorious time we had at Carthage, on Aug. 8th, with Col. Dockery.

He made a thrilling speech, and nearly all who heard him were highly pleased, and I think on the 7th of Nov. they will prove it.

He scalped one lawyer Waddell, from Chatham, completely, and the horse-bones are sick, sick, sick! We are working up here to get liberty once more before we die.
The way to get it is to go out on the 7th of November and vote for the Hon. O. H. Dockery and William P. Canaday and all the rest of the good Republicans and Liberals.

The Magistrate of Moore county met on the first Monday in August to elect new commissioners for said county, and it was suggested by some of the good Republicans that we ought to let some colored man run for the position of county Commissioner too. And what do they say? If you can get a better man than we can, go ahead.

The magistrates of Moore county don't want a colored man to hold any position at all. I can but say if the colored men of North Carolina think that the Democrats are their friends, they are badly mistaken.
MOORE, Republican.

TEMPERANCE HALL,

Edgecombe County, Aug. 12, 1882.

Messrs. Editor: Pursuant to previous announcement, there was a large gathering of Township Nos. 12, 13, and 14, to participate in the anniversary celebration of the Samaritan Lodge, Toloan vicinity. Agreeable to invitation a number of prominent persons from other parts were present, among whom were J. H. Hannon, of Halifax, John C. Dancy and Dr. W. E. Moore, of Tarboro, and J. M. Copeland, of Rocky Mount. These gentlemen were invited to speak, which they did in an interesting manner. Dr. Moore spoke on "the needs of the negro." Mr. J. C. Dancy on "the benefits accruing from Societies," and Mr. J. H. Hannon on the "ills we suffer," and at the same time defended the claims of Hon. J. E. O'Hara for Congress.

Messrs. Moore and Hannon touched upon politics pretty strongly, but Mr. Dancy, by request, traced societies, from their origin to the present, and insisted upon their encouragement, as the safest solution of the negro problem. Its effect was wonderful. Every body endorsed his many utterances, which constant applause showed, were highly appreciated.

Mr. Hannon reasoned admirably. He urged that the only show for negro recognition was by persistent effort, even against adverse winds. He spoke at length and made a strong impression. He urged all to work out their solution like men.

Dr. Moore, with spice and anecdotes, kept up constant laughter and interest, which shows that he knows how to influence a crowd. He is a candidate for the Senate, from Edgecombe county. By the way, Dancy is Register of Deeds, of Edgecombe; and everybody, we find, says he will be re-nominated and elected, without the slightest difficulty. He is strong with the masses, and everybody likes him. Hannon is candidate for Register of Deeds, of Halifax, and will take the oath of office in December. Call to see him at the Court House after that time.

We learn that Hannon, Dancy, and Geo. H. White were schoolmates at Harvard University. Good specimens of proper training they are too.

After the speaking a large dinner, consisting of barbecue, chicken, cake, peaches, etc., was set before the large crowd, which they freely partook of to their soul's delight and heart's content. The whole was under the efficient management of Mr. Geo. W. Hill, than whom, no better dispenser of good gifts lives.

Every one enjoyed himself, and good reports may be expected from this section in the forth-coming election.

Yours for success,

EDGECOMBE.
